2024 NEWS + NOTES

A Note from Our Executive Director

ECF is proud to provide opportunities for Episcopalians throughout the Diocese of Atlanta to support their parishes and people experiencing poverty and oppression in a variety of ways!

Many people are taking advantage of ECF's assistance with tax-friendly giving methods like gifts of stock or contributions from IRAs. ECF also works in partnership with our parishes to provide administrative and fundraising support so members can formalize their long-term wishes through estate planning tools like bequests and life insurance contributions. If you are interested in learning more about making a legacy gift to your parish or a ministry in our diocese, please contact Lindsey Hardegree and learn more. ECFimpact.org/legacy

Through customized education opportunities, consultation with parish leadership, and one-on-one fundraising support, ECF is working to ensure that all parishioners are educated about how they can care for the future of their parish as well as those experiencing poverty and oppression throughout our Diocese. Parish leadership, both clergy and lay, should contact Lindsey Hardegree to learn more. ECFimpact.org/contact

And we can see the impact of past legacy giving through ECF's grantmaking program today! Without the generosity of Episcopalians over the last 42 years, we would not have been able to fund six strong Episcopal partnerships with grants averaging more than $22,300, a significant investment in our parish communities. ECFimpact.org/grants

Each year I am amazed and humbled by the dedication of Episcopalians who are finding new and creative ways to work with communities in need. It is because of you that we can help people move from a place of poverty and oppression to a thriving, sustainable future. I can't wait to see what you bring to life in 2025!
